Description:

Detailed map of classical Germany published by Nicolas Sanson in Paris.

The map extends to modern Poland, Czechia, Austria and Hungary, along with Northern Italy, the Baltic nations and the Low Countries.

The map includes an elaborate text sheet to the left, which identifies regions, sub-regions, cities. etc.

The text sheet was published in 1667 by Pierre Mariette. While the two appear together in atlases, it is rare to see the two joined as a single sheet.
