Description:

A nice example of Munster's uncommon view of Bordeaux, from a German edition of Munster's Cosmography. This highly detailed map shows the layout of the French city on the Gironde, labeling a number of places of interest and showing, in great detail, the ancient part of the city.

In the distance, the Bordeaux castle is visible, and ruins from Roman times are shown. The city possesses nice wide streets and the merchant ships at sea represent the wealth of the city.

Detailed Condition:

From the Cosmographia, with thinner paper and some show-through from verso.
