Description:

Rare broadside map of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport by Andrew Hickenlooper, Surveyor and Civil Engineer in 1860.

The work would appear to be an advertising broadside for Isaac Larrance's City Guide.

The map includes an extensive key and business Directory.

Isaac Larrance would go on to publish a very rare postal atlas in 1866, entitled Larrance's Post Office Chart and Maps of Ten States, showing the locality of the counties and county seats in a moment, by figures.

We can find no other examples of this map.
