Description:

Cornell's Outline Maps No. 5 produced in 1859 by G. Woolworth Colton for D. Appleton & Co. to accompany Cornell's Series of School Geographies, provides an instructive and detailed view of the Southeast, Texas and Gulf Coast of the United States.

Tracking the Atlantic Ocean and Gulf Coasts, the map helps students identify the location of states, rivers and major cities, all unnamed.

A fascinating learning tool, its association with Cornell's Series of School Geographies underscores its role as a conduit for disseminating geographic knowledge to a growing population of learners.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color. Linen-backed wall map with hanging rings at the top edge. Dampstain. Some damage throughout the map, as illustrated. Fair to good.
