Description:

The Heart of the San Joaquin Valley

Fine large format cadastral map of Stanislaus County, California, published by the Stanislaus Land & Title Company.

Centered on the Tuolumne River and the San Joaquin River, and the city of Modesto, the map is remarkably detailed, listing showing schools, railroads, county and lesser roads, irrigation district boundaries, bridges, and host information.

This map provides a comprehensive overview of the heart of the Central Valley of California delineating private landholdings, cadastral section lines, Spanish land grants (ranchos), and municipal divisions. It includes detailed hydrographic elements, transportation networks comprising railroads and roads, as well as the locations of bridges, educational institutions, and the extents of irrigation jurisdictions.

Accompanying the primary map are five ancillary cartographic depictions of Ceres, Newman, Turlock, Modesto, and Oakdale.
