Nice example of Dunn's decorative double hemisphere map of the World, embellished with a number of different Celestial Models, which has been revised to include the discoveries of Captain Cook on his 3 voyages.

Dunn's map is one of the most popular and recognizable wall maps of the world from the period, having been the map of choice for a number of atlases published by Jefferys, Sayer & Bennett and Laurie and Whittle over a 30-year period. The map was revised several times, with this example, bearing the Laurie & Whittle's imprint, which includes the tracks for Cook's 3 voyages.

A nice decorative example on good thick paper.
