Description:

Colorful pictorial tourist map of the Province of Lucca, showing a vibrant and illustrative representation of the province of Lucca in Italy.

The map serves as a guide to the scenic and historical attractions spread across the region, known for its rich cultural heritage and picturesque landscapes. The map offers considerable artistic embellishment, capturing the essence of Lucca's diverse terrain with clever vignettes, from the rolling hills and mountainous areas to the serene coastal stretches along the Tyrrhenian Sea. Key landmarks, such as castles, villas, and historic sites, are prominently illustrated, providing visual cues to the province's storied past and architectural splendors.

An inset in the upper right corner of the map provides a more focused view of the road network. The compass rose and cartouche are stylized to match the map's overall aesthetic, with the latter displaying
