Description:

Fine original antique map of central Europe, showing the region under Austria's sphere of influence in the middle of the 18th century.

The map shows the region in fine detail, naming many cities, rivers, lakes, towns, mountain ranges, and more. Cities shown include Prague, Vienna, Budapest, and Trieste. The map includes two regal Germanic cartouches, one with coats of arms in the upper left and one with a table of distance measurements in the lower right.

This map was published by the inheritors of the Homann publishing firm, who issued their works in Nuremberg and Paris. It is for this reason that the title is also given in French as "Le Cercle D'Autriche, consistant dans. . ."

Detailed Condition:

Hand-coloring on 18th-century laid paper. Minor foxing. Small spot in lower right cartouche.
