Description:

Rare example of Ottens two regional maps of Northern Italy and part of Switzerland, which have been joined by the original publisher for binding into a composite atlas by Ottens. The map is centered on Genoa, Milan, Como and Lago Maggiore and extends to Florence and Lucca in the southeast, Trento, Padua and Pieve de Cadore in the northeast, and Grenoble and Geneva in the west. A bit of staining near the center of the map and trimmed to the neatline by the binder at the lower left corner, but generally a nice example.
