Description:

Scarce and highly decorative regional map of the Southeastern United States, including a marvelous example of Florida, depicted as an archipelago.

The map includes excellent detail, including a number of early roads, Indian details, and early settlements in the region. Cassini was a map publisher in Rome in the late 18th and early 19th century. His important atlas Nuovo Atlante Geografico Universale included gores for a pair of 33cm globes.
