Sketch of the Battle of Hobkirk's Hill near Camden on the 25th of April 1781. Drawn by C. Vallancey Captn. Of the Vols. Of Ireland

Stock#:	22109
Map Maker:	Stedman / Faden
Date:	1794
Place:	London
Color:	Uncolored
Condition:	VG
Size:	17 x 11.5 inches
Price:	SOLD

Description:

Scarce example of Faden's Revolutionary War battle map drawn by Vallancey, a British Captain.

The map shows the position of the troops of Lord Rawdon versus Nathanial Greene. Noted on the map are Log Town (destroy'd) and Mr. Charleston's burnt [home]. Rawdon's troops won this battle, but had casualties of 30%, which forced a retreat to Charleston. This is second issue of the map appeared in Stedman's History of the . . . Revolutionary War.

Detailed Condition: