[ Prague ] Praga celeberrima et maxima totius Bohemiae Metropolis et Universitas florentissima ad Muldam Fl.

Stock#: 67179
Map Maker: Seutter
Date: 1730 circa Place: Augsburg
Color: Hand Colored
Condition: Good
Size: 23 x 19.5 inches
Price: $ 1,600.00

Description:

Fine example of Seutter's decorative and highly detailed plan of Prague, with a striking view of the city below. The map shows the city divided into three neighborhoods, the "small," "old," and "new" cities. Fields and Vysehard Cemetery surround the city. The Vltava is denoted by its German name of Moldau. Many other features are drawn and noted, including the Charles Bridge.

The panorama depicts the various neighborhoods and features noted above. Prague Castle and the Ratschin (castle district) are shown. The significance of the ruins in the foreground is unclear and may relate to something in the present day vicinity of Petrin Tower.

The map includes 5 coats of arms, the view includes 6 coats of arms. This includes the coat of arms of the city with three towers on a shield.

Detailed Condition:

Old hand-color. Dampstain to top edge, barely proceeding to the neatline.
