Description:

Rare 2 sheet Tavernier Map of Savoy Region, with a remarkable set of vignettes of Valleys in the Grand Alps.

The map extends from Savoy to the Mediterranean (between Nice and Genoa), covering the entire Grandes Alps region between Geneva in the north, Grenoble in the west and Casale in the east.

The upper edge is decorated with four views of the alpine valleys designed by Simon Maupin, architect from Lyon and the king's engineer-geographer: the Susa Valley, the Pragellato valley, the Varaita valley and the Stura valley. The southern part of Piedmont is filled with place names, while indications are rare in the upper part and especially in the massifs of Mont Blanc and Grand Paradis.
