Description:

Detailed railroad map of Louisiana, showing counties, railroad lines, towns, rivers, township surveys, lakes, mountains, etc. The map includes an index and a list of operating railroads. This map shows an early layout of Louisiana counties with very large counties remaining in the western portion of the state (for example, Calcasieu County). The railroad layout shown is indispensable for understanding the evolution of the Louisianan economy near the turn of the century.

This map was published in Cram's Standard American Railway Atlas, an important text for any businessman or traveler.
