Description:

Fine original antique map of the districts of Holborn and Covent Garden in central London, produced by Richard Blome for Strype's 1720 annotated reissue of Stow's 16th-century Survey of the Cities of London and Westminster.

The map shows, in fantastic detail, this storied and central part of London. The region is named according to its parishes, which are the two adjoining parishes of St. Clements Danes and St. Mary Savoy. 61 places of interest are listed in an index.

Detailed Condition:

Minor dampstain at top, entering image.
