Description:

Nice vintage pictorial map of Portland, Oregon, published during the golden age of American pictorial mapmaking and focusing on the city's scenic parkways.

This nice map of Portland shows the city with Mt. Hood in the distance. The monuments and places of interest of the city are shown throughout. The University of Oregon, Reed College, the Williamette Airport, and the Portland Airport on Swan Island are all shown. The confluence of the Willamette and Columbia Rivers lies just off the map. The map is orientated westwards.

This map was copyrighted by Marguerite Gillespie, who worked with the Beaver Engraving Company to produce a map.

Detailed Condition:

Folding map. Printed both sides. Pencil manuscript circle of the scenic parkway symbol on the front of the map.
