Description:

Nice original antique map showing Northeastern Italy, published by Leonard and Gerard Valck in Amsterdam in the late 17th century.

This map shows the region in great detail. Cities of importance are marked in red, including Venice, Padua, Trent, Verona, Brescia, Mantova, and Cremona. Rivers, towns, and much more are also shown.

This map extends eastwards as far as the Istrian Peninsula, southwards to Urbino, and westwards to Piacenza. In all, a very nice, decorative map of the region.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color, in outline. Small stain near Bologna and minor offsetting.
