Description:

Beautifully colored Scottish map of South America from the early part of the 19th century.

This map shows the region with hydrographic and topographic detail. Cities are shown. Brasil is shown hugging the coast, with Amazonia taking up the central portion of the map. A rough outline of Sandwich land appears in the far southeast.

This map was published as part of Ewing's General Atlas by Oliver and Boyd, and engraved by W. & D. Lizards.

Detailed Condition:

Original hand-color, in outline. Binding tab at left where removed from a book. Small tear, just into image.
