Description:

A nice example of Wyld's map of South America, is based on the 8-sheet map of South America by Delarochette, first published by William Faden in 1807.

The original Delarochette Colombia Prima map is one of the great maps of South America of the 19th Century, measuring 98 x 67 inches. James Wyld, Faden's successor, revised the map several times during the 19th century, both the full-size version in 8 sheets and this smaller 2-sheet version.

Detailed Condition:

Unjoined Map in two sheets.
