Description:

Rare Dutch Sea chart of a portion of the East Coast of England, centered on Hull, published by Jacob Colom, circa 1639.

The map appeared in Colom's The New Fierie Sea-Colomne, one of the earliest of Colom's works.

Oriented with west toward the top, the chart extends from Cromer in the south (near Norwich) to the area near Sunderland, Newcastle and the mouth of the Tyne River.

The chart is very rare on the market.
