

Barry Lawrence Ruderman Antique Maps Inc.

7407 La Jolla Boulevard
La Jolla, CA 92037

www.raremaps.com

(858) 551-8500
blr@raremaps.com

Carte Des Lignes -- Compagnie Generale Transatlantique French Line

Stock#: 55920
Map Maker: Collin
Date: 1959
Place: Paris
Color: Color
Condition: VG
Size: 38.5 x 29.5 inches
Price: $ 975.00

Description:

A Large Promotional Map for the Compagnie Generale Transatlantique.

Decorative map of the Atlantic Ocean, highlighting the routes taken by the Compagnie Générale Transatlantique, French Line between Europe and the Americas.

The company was founded in 1861, and began sailing from Le Havre to Mexico in 1862. From 1864 they added a service from le Havre to New York, a journey which took about eight days, they also sailed to Canada via Plymouth, throughout the Mediterranean and routes to the West Indies.

Includes a large chart showing flags of various countries.

Detailed Condition:

Minor repairs along lower margin.