Description:

Jean Boisseau's First Map!

Rare map of the Diocese of Aire, printed in Paris in 1635.

The map is oriented with east at the top, breaking the course of the Leie River and its tributaries.

All of Boisseau's maps are rare. As noted in Mapforum.com

The map is apparently quite rare.
