Description:

Detailed map of Sumatra and Malacca, centered on Singapore, published in Paris, ca 1750, drawn from recent reports of French and other maritime sources and the manuscript maps and plans in the French Depot de La Marine.

The map focuses on Sumatra and the southern portion of the Malaysian peninsula. Singapore is not identified, but several other lesser islands are named including Tioman Island, Banca, and Penang, plus many off the west coast of Sumatra.

Good detail of the Straits of Malacca and the Detroit de Sincapour. The cities of Palembang, Jambi, Manimcabo, Aceh and Batang are located, but not Medan.

Decorative French rococo-style cartouches contain the title and a second one at lower left for notes.

Detailed Condition:

Minor discoloration at upper centerfold.
