Description:

Rare separately published English Sea Chart of the Java Sea, Java and parts of Borneo, Bally and Sumatra, with an inset map of part of the Island of Lubeck, published by William Herbert.

Herbert is perhaps best known for his A New Directory for the East-Indies . . ., a set of sailing directions originally published by William Herbert, William Nicholson and Samuel Dunn and later expanded by Gabriel Wright.

The present chart is likely based upon Manneville's chart of the same region, but with the the addition of the inset at the lower left, showing part of the Island of Lubeck and noting the tracks of the Osterly. A similar chart was published by Laurie & Whittle.
