Description:

Striking large format map of Europe, with striking cartouche, including a portrait of Queen Ann and Coat of Arms and 4 ornate figures, including two American Indians, an European carrying a flag and a fourth figure in turban and robe. This example bears the impint Printed for H. Moll D. Midwinter at ye 3 Crowns in St. Pauls Church and T. Bowles Print & Mapseller next to the Chapter house in St. Pauls Church Yard 1708...Sold By H. Moll...and P. Overton... The map has been archivally backed to reinforce the traditionally weak folds and there is some minor restoration in the margins, but generally a very clean example, with little or no discoloration or loss at the fold lines, as is typical for this map. Overall, a very attractive example. An early state, predating the change in the dedication to Carolina.
