Description:

This picture map of Jackson Hole from 1988 is part of a tradition that continues with new editions created and circulated each year to around 250,000 people.

In a pictorial style, important buildings including monuments, advertised businesses, and surrounding resorts are drawn and labeled.

Included in the map are the main town of Jackson Hole, Teton Village, and the Jackson Hole Racquet Club Resort.

On the verso there are maps of Yellowstone National Park, Grand Teton National Park, and Jenny Lake Loop.

The map advertises local businesses and gives a look into the area at the time, with later editions displaying changes to the city.
