Description:

The First Reasonably Obtainable Atlas Map of Montana Territory

Early separate map of the Territory of Montana, hand colored by counties and showing the limited extent of the state surveys as of the date.

The map shows only 13 counties. Shows numerous Indian Reservations, Treaty information, roads, rivers, towns, mountains, forts and other features. Full margins.

The earliest obtainable map of Montana Territory to appear in a Commercial atlas. There is also an extremely rare railroad atlas map published by George Cram, first issued in 1875, which is virtually unobtainable.
