Description:

A nice example of Rand McNally's 1882 atlas map of southeastern New York, showing the region between Albany and New York City.

The map is subdivided into counties and municipalities throughout the region. Cities, railroads, rivers, and other features are also shown. In all, the map is very detailed.

In the Lower Left, the map includes an inset of New York City showing Lower Manhattan, Jersey City, Brooklyn, New York Bay, and neighboring regions. Ferry and train connections are indicated.
