Description:

Rare large folio atlas map of New England by George F. Cram from the 1878 edition of his railroad atlas.

The map is colored by counties and provides an excellent overview of the railroads of New England.

George Cram would become one of the most prolific atlas publishers of the last 19th and early 20th Centuries. His earliest maps, issued in the late 1860s, were marvelous separately issued railroad maps. His success led to the publication of at least three editions of his now very rare New Commercial Atlas of the United States in 1875 and 1879, which included a number of Cram's rare separately issued railroad maps.

Rarity

The early Cram railroad atlas maps are rare. This is the first time we have offered the map for sale (1992-2024).
