Description:

Best Edition With a Fine 19th-Century Map of California

The Volkmann Copy

The second and best edition. The first edition, published the previous year, did not include a map.

The map of California, which shows most of Nevada as well, indicates railroad routes and wagon roads.

*Of the numerous works upon California, this is one of the best and most complete of that period.
Many authorities have been consulted and carefully cited. - Cowan.*

An essential book for any serious California collection. This example with a distinguished provenance.
Daniel Volkmann was one of the very few bibliophiles to assemble a complete collection of first editions of
