Description:

Fascinating map, showing a massive depiction of Lithuania, extending south to Galicia and Moldavia and including Kieve and the region west of the Dniepr River. Poland is now restricted to a very small area, relative to its prior history. Poland is now divided into the Kingdom of Poland, Russian Poland, Austrian Poland and Prussian Poland, with a note that the greater part of Russian Lithuania is included in the modern governments of Wilno, Grodno and Minsk.
