Description:

The Savannah Line

Striking large format map focused on the Southeastern part of the United States and Cuba, illustrating the Winter Camps of the U.S. Army.

The map provides a detailed illustration of the Central of Georgia Railway's network as it weaves through the southern United States, accompanied by its maritime links to Cuba. Additionally, it pinpoints the deployment of United States military forces across Cuban soil.

An ancillary map inset presents a view of Puerto Rico, enhancing the map's geographic scope. Above the main map, the winter encampments of the U.S. Army are vividly portrayed with accompanying illustrations.

The map further includes a comprehensive index measuring the distances in miles between various Cuban localities, alongside an enumeration of the U.S. military contingents stationed in the Division of Cuba as of
