Description:

A fascinating map of the United States published the Adams-Onís Treaty but showing West Florida and an unnamed territory south of it as part of the United States.

Not yet a state, Maine is the District of Main, part of Massachusetts. A large "Indian Territory" covers the northwestern portion of the map; normally, this would be called "Northwest Territory".

Georgia extends west to the Mississippi.

Detailed Condition:

Engraving on early-19th-century wove paper. Original hand-color in full. Some foxing.
