Description:

Transylvania Sibenburgien, published in Amsterdam by Willem and Johannes Blaeu, is an antique engraved map of Transylvania and Sibenberg, first issued in 1634.

This historical map includes an elaborate decorative cartouche and a coat of arms in the lower right corner, featuring two women sitting next to a shield adorned with three claws.

The artistic embellishments and geographical details of the map reflect the cartographic style and understanding of the period, making it a valuable piece of European cartography. It serves as both a geographical reference and a symbol of the era's decorative artistry.

Detailed Condition:

Engraving on 17th-century laid paper. Original hand-coloring. Very minor tear toward center of upper border expertly repaired on verso.
