Description:

Scarce map of the Mississippi River, in 4 panels. Extends the mouth of The Missouri River just north of St. Louis to the Gulf of Mexico. Includes panoramic city vignettes of St. Louis, Memphis, Vicksburg and Algiers. Highly detailed map, showing towns, forts, railroad lines, roads, rivers, creeks, islands, lakes, etc. Includes a table of distances from St. Louis. A few repairs extending into the printed image with some minor loss and some minor staining, but generally a good example of this notoriously fragile map. Archivaly backed with Japan paper on the verso. Stephens 42.5. The first time we have ever seen the map.
