Description:

Scarce separately published example of George W. Cram's highly detailed railroad map of Texas.

The map shows counties, railroads, railway stations, township surveys, mountains, rivers, lakes, and a host of other early details. The map also shows county seats, money order post offices, and other commerce details. The title is decoratively presented.

The present example bears the name of H.H. Howard of Eagle Springs, Texas, and the date of 1891. This is almost certainly Harvery Howard Jr. (1861-1943).

Detailed Condition:

Color-printed folding map on wove paper. Mounted in original printed paper covers (heavily worn). Some minor soiling. Ownership inscription "H. Howard Jan 6th 1891" in the lower margin.
