Description:

This detailed map of Rhode Island delineates the state's various counties with different colors for easy identification. Surrounding the map, extensive text provides a wealth of information about Rhode Island, including its situation, boundaries, and extent; the face of the country, soil, and productions; details on bays, islands, climate, civil divisions and population; chief towns; manufactures and commerce; education; religion; and government. Additionally, it lists the governors of Rhode Island from its establishment to the publication date. The historical sketch offers a narrative of Rhode Island's founding, development, and significant events. The map's decorative elements, such as the compass rose and the border, reflect the cartographic style of the early 19th century.
