Description:

Old color example of this very rare edition of Ortelius' map of Valencia, which appeared only in the 1584 edition and in a very few examples of the 1592 edition. The map extends from Murcia and Orihuela to the Cenia River and extending inland to include a bit of Aragon and Castilla, centered on Valencia. From the 1592 Latin edition of his Theatrum Orbis Terrarum. Includes a massive cartouche and with large sailing vessels. This appears to be an even rarer variant than noted in Van den Broeck, as it bears the page number 19, which is not recorded by Van Den Broecke for the 1592 editions of the map. A some staining in the title and several minor wormholes near the lower centerfold, into the printed image, but still a good example of this rare variant. Van den Broecke 29.
