Description:

Rare miniature map the Chesapeake and Delaware Bay regions, identifying approximately 25 counties in a separate key. The map is listed by Dunlap in his checklist of Delaware maps and the Library of Congress. The map appears in The present state of His Majesties isles and territories in America ... by Richard Blome, London 1687. A version of this map was also in Morden's 1688 Geography Rectified, with text below the map. Only 2 appearances in dealer catalogues over the past 25 years are recorded. A very nice example, with good margins (often lacking) and old color.
