Description:

Decorative 17th century map of the southern half of Italy, extending from approximately Rome and Tuscany to the southern tip of Naples, with part of Sicily. Attractive wash color. Cluver's Geography was one of the most enduring works of the 17th & 18th Centuries, issued by several different publishers with many different sets of maps over nearly 200 years. This edition is one of the most decorative. Tear repair on the top centerfold.
