Description:

Interesting early regional map, showing part of Sumatra, Java, Sunda, etc. Southern part of the island is shown as Terra Incognita It Iaoa.

The map illustrates the travels of Lopo Paz de Sampayo. In the early 18th Century, Vander Aa reproduced a number of rare manuscript and printed accounts of 16th Century Travel to America and included marvelous decorative maps, which were typically based upon contemporary cartographic information. Many of the earliest voyages of exploration which are impossibly rare to find in the original editions can be found in Vander Aa's works, which are now becoming increasingly rare. This example is in an attractive full wash color.
