Description:

Interesting map of the Eastern Mediterranean and Middle East, illustrating the expedition of John Mildenhall on behalf of the English East India Company in 1599, seeking to secure trading rights through Persia from the Great Mogol. Mildenhall, a Levant merchant and a clergyman John Cartwright arrived at Agra in 1600, having travelled overland from Aleppo and obtained trading privileges for the East India Company from Akbar. Cartwright later wrote an important account of their travels. Includes a decorative vignette and compass rose.
