Description:

This is the 4th state of Hondius' decorative map of the South Polar region, predating the first appearance of New Zealand and Van Diemen's Land. The supposed coastline of the unknown southern continent continues to appear. Includes notes regarding the affirmation of the discovery of islands by Magellan and Hernando Galego. An early color example which has been deacidified and the colors refreshed. The map has been strengthened in several spots on the verso. Overall an attractive copy. Tooley 729.
