Description:

An early coast to coast map of the United States by Stieler, showing a massive 54-40 or fight Oregon Border, continuous river from San Francisco to Salt Lake (Timpanagos), the remnants of the second Salt Lake, the Missions in California, an early Texas Colony named S. Saba, several early routes through Texas, and massive Ozark, Osage, Mandan, Huron and Sioux Districts in the West. A number of early Indian names appear. Immediately predates Texas independence. While Stieler's later maps are relatively common, his early works are quite scarce. One of the first German maps to show the US from Coast to Coast.
