Description:

Marvelous pre-Civil War map of Florida, with a large inset plan of the Keys. The south is dominated by Dade, Monroe, Brevard, Mantee, and Hillsboro Counties. The state surveys have crossed the state, but still have not been completed in Monroe and Dade counties, which are still largely shown as swamp lands. A number of forts appear throughout the map. Also names early roads, rivers, lakes, islands, Indian areas (Bowlegs Land) and a host of other details. Fine attractive color and decorative border.
