Description:

Rich dark example of Heinrich Bunting's scarce map of Africa, from a German edition of his Itinerarium Sacræ Scripturæ. The Nile finds its source in the mountains of the moon. Elephantophagi is shown in West Africa. Several large cities and kingdoms noted. The map is based largely upon Munter's map, first issued in 1540. Large sailing ship and sea creatures embellish the map. Minor repaired wormhole, else a fine dark example. Norwich 17. Not in Tooley.
