Description:

Rare first state of Homann's map of Greece, the Balkans and contiguous parts of the Adriatic and Aegean Seas. Striking decorative cartouche and a large inset map of the Upper Danube region. Excellent detail among the islands, and showing the straits from the Aegean into the Black Sea. A remarkable dark clean impression, from a very early edition of Homann's Atlas Novus Terrarum. Pre-dates Homann's privilege. Repaired fold split and some loss in the margins, not affecting the printed image. In all, a nice example.
