Description:

Gorgeous old color example of Allard's increasingly scarce maps of America, Terra Esonia and Japan, with an inset showing the coastline of New Zealand. California is depicted as an island. The most notable feature of the map is Terra Esonis, a massive land bridge extending from Japan to the Straits of Anian, with only a small strait on either side. Gorgeous old color example. Narrow lower margin, but otherwise a fine example of this scarce map. McLaughlin 132; Tooley #65.
