Description:

Very attractive double-hemisphere map with California depicted as an island. Decorative banner contains title. In the center of the banner there is a smaller sphere showing the North Pole. This map shows a number of place names along with the names of the seas. Many islands are shown, including New Holland (Australia) lacking an east coast and New Zealand. First published in 1695, this map is from one of the subsequent editions of Abell Swall's and Tim Child's Thesaurus Geographicus issued in 1700, 1701 and 1709.
