Description:

Scarce letter sheet style set of 4 birdseye views, issued by Charles Magnus. Magnus is well regarded for his large format birdseye views of major American Cities and for his letter sheets, which were essentially stationary with printed maps on the upper or lower half of the sheet. Because of the paper quality and the separately issued nature of the work, they are now quite scarce. Includes Congress Springs, a view of the City, Head Waters of Lake George and Saratoga Lake
